

Bereavement Counselling Service

Members of the Generali UK Group Life Assurance Scheme and their immediate families, have access to a Bereavement Counselling Service and a *Probate Helpline.

The Bereavement Counselling Service is available to members' immediate families in the event of the death of a member, or to the member if they suffer a bereavement. The Probate Helpline can assist members who have been appointed to administer a deceased person's estate.

THE BEREAVEMENT COUNSELLING SERVICE INCLUDES:

- Unlimited 24/7 access to a bereavement helpline, staffed by fully qualified counsellors

- Practical advice and details of self-help groups and charities where appropriate

- Appointment-based telephonic sessions where appropriate with a professionally trained counsellor
